

Discover Roanoke delivers donation to school

Thursday, July 28, 2011 7:49 AM

Roanoke Elementary Principal Paul Roth (left) and Roanoke Elementary PTO Chairperson Sharon Pulver accept a check from John Nelson, representing OnTurf Sports. The money was raised by the recent Discover Roanoke 10K-5K. Photo provided.

The organizers of the Discover Roanoke 10K/5K recently presented the Roanoke Elementary PTO with a $580 check.

In addition to the gift to the PTO, the organizers will also provide financial contributions to the Roanoke Volunteer Fire Department and Huntington County Emergency Management.

The event was sponsored by Parkview Physicians' Group (PPG), Parkview Huntington Hospital, Edward Jones Investments (Roanoke), United REMC, American Specialty, Bippus State Bank, J.O. Wolf Tool and Die, Lassus Handy Dandy, and Dick's Sporting Goods.

In-kind assistance was received from the Roanoke Elementary PTO, Huntington County Emergency Management, the Roanoke Volunteer Fire Department, Fred Toenges Shoes, Three Rivers Running Company, Intricut Tool and Die, Skinny Water, and Ryan Martin Photography.

The event drew 257 participants.

Winners were:

- Bryan Hazel, of Fort Wayne - 10K Men, in a time of 34:24.5.
- Emily Eherenman, of Roanoke - 10K Women, 49:06.5.
- Skyler Vogelmann, of Huntington - 5K Men, 18:22.8.
- Dianna Fox, of Berne - 5K Women, 21:07.2.

The 2012 event will be held on Saturday, April 21.
Entries are being accepted online.

For details, visit www.onturfsports.com/Runners/10k-5kRunWalk.htm.